

EXTENDED TIME TESTING

A student may be eligible for extended time on the Regents' Test if the student is classified as a multiple repeater or if the student has a documented disability that requires extended time. Extended time is two hours for each section for which the student may qualify.