Dear School Representative:

The Office of Career Services extends a special invitation to experience our tradition of academic excellence as a participant in the Southwest Georgia Education Career Fair to be held October 21, 2008. In the June issue of Diversity: Issues in Higher Education, the Albany State University College of Education is ranked 14th out of colleges and universities across the nation for graduating African-American students with bachelor's degrees in education.

Your participation will afford your school system the opportunity to talk with the most dynamic student body at Southwest Georgia's Preeminent Institution of Higher Education. Individuals attending the Fair will include alumni, currently enrolled students in the College of Education and other majors.

If your organization is interested in meeting the future educators of America, please complete the registration form and return it by Friday, August 29, 2008. You are encouraged to bring catalogues, brochures, and other literature that can be displayed on your table. In addition, as part of your table set-up, we urge you to bring some type of banner denoting your organization's name, and your own electrical cords and equipment for use in your displays. We will provide you with table, outlets, and chairs.
