Albany State University - Albany Technical College
Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education
Articulation Agreement

Albany State University (ASU) and Albany Technical College agree as follows:

Purpose: The two institutions are entering into an Articulation Agreement to assist and promote transferability of credit hours from the Associate of Science degree in Early Childhood Care and Education at Albany Technical College to the Bachelor of Science degree in Early Childhood Education at Albany State University.

Term: Terms of this agreement will be effective as of March 2012. Either party may terminate this Agreement upon giving written notice to the other party. Such notice must be given one full semester prior to the agreement being cancelled.

Conditions: This agreement ensures ease and flexibility of transfer of courses from Albany Technical College to Albany State University as provided therein.

Requirements for Quality Assurance

1. ATC will annually provide adequate documentation for faculty persons teaching courses to be accepted as transfer classes by ASU.

2. ASU will conduct annual evaluations of the credentials of ATC faculty members teaching all courses accepted to ensure that faculty members are appropriately qualified. The COC credential guidelines will be followed to assess faculty qualifications, in addition to other quality factors that demonstrate teaching competence.

3. ATC will annually provide syllabi of all courses to be accepted by ASU.

4. ASU will conduct an annual review of course syllabi of all accepted courses from ATC to ensure that all of those courses are comparable in content to ASU courses.
