

Teacher/Leader Residency Professional Development Opportunity Albany State University

Albany State University
College of Education

THE PROGRAM AT A GLANCE:

- For teacher residents in special education, science, or mathematics
- Year-long teacher residency must take place in high-need schools
- Teacher Residents are paid a stipend = $15,000
- Residents and Mentors must participate in program-identified professional development activities
- Residents must commit to a three-year service obligation at a high-need school in one of the following subject areas: math, science or special education
- Teacher residents must participate in anchor action research projects and present at an annual conference

Application Requirements

Applicants for the ASU Residency program must meet ASU application requirements*

*ASU application requirements can be found at <http://www.asurams.edu>

In addition to the ASU application requirements, applicants must:

- Have a minimum 3.0 undergraduate GPA
- Complete an interview with the selection committee
- Provide proof of U.S. citizenship or be a permanent resident

For More Info:

Dr. Tiffany D. Pogue
Albany State University
229-430-4716
tiffany.pogue@asurams.edu

