Tired of taking a language course in a classroom? Let's go outside!

ASU's Japan Summer Study Abroad Program will allow students to have fun while learning Japanese amongst the local citizens in the historic city of Kyoto. All courses will be integrated with Japanese culture and history, which will be enhanced by conversations and excursions with students from the host campus—Ryokoku University.

Summer in Japan Program field trips:

- Kiyomizu Temple
- Atomic Bomb Memorial park (Hiroshima)
- Tokyo National Museum
- Traditional Japanese music performances
- Peace Museum
- Authentic Japanese restaurants
- Plus many other cultural excursions!

Japan 2017

June 3—July 7

Course Information

Note All students are required to take at least 6 credits

JPAN 1001: Elementary Japanese I

An oral approach to the language, with fundamentals of grammar and emphasis on conversation, supplemented by oral-aural drills in the language laboratory. Language learning will be enhanced by direct contact with native Japanese speakers during the 4 weeks in Japan.

Instructor: Dr. Mimi Noda

JPAN 1002: Elementary Japanese II

A continuation of Japanese 1001 that further develop listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in Japanese while including cultural, historical, and literary components. Prerequisite: Japanese 1001

Instructor: Dr. Mimi Noda

MUSC 1100: Music Appreciation

General education course for non-music majors. Study of the basic materials of music and a survey of important examples of music literature, style periods, and representative composers from the sixth century to the present day. Emphasizes techniques for listening analytically and critically.

Instructor: Dr. Kenneth Trimmins

MUSC 3125: History of Jazz (Performing the Music)

The study of jazz from its beginning African heritage with emphasis on jazz development and such influences as work songs, ragtime, Dixieland, blues, and popular music. Since music is considered an international language, and Jazz (in particular) and other African-American music have many different cultural influence (including Japanese), this course will offer a unique opportunity to learn and implement performance techniques in an international setting. Prerequisite: MUSC 2022

Instructor: Dr. Kenneth Trimmins
