

The University of Cape Coast

The Study Abroad Program location is at The University of Cape Coast, which is five kilometers west of Cape Coast, is on a hill overlooking the Atlantic Ocean and students will live with Host Families on Campus or pay $1,000 to lodge at the University Guest House for their stay.

How to Apply

Program applications can be found at www.asurams.edu in Global Programs (Quick Links)

You can also pick up a copy at Wiley Hall 212. Applications must be submitted directly to The Office of Global Programs.

Dr. Anthony Owusu-Ansah, Ghana Spring Program Coordinator

Office: Billy Black 224
Email: Anthony.owusu-ansah@asurams.edu
Phone: 229-426-1265

For more information, contact:

Office of Global Programs

Phone: 229-430-1662

Email: globalprograms@asurams.edu

Or visit us at www.asurams.edu/globalprograms
<http://asuglobalprograms.tumblr.com/>
<https://www.facebook.com/ASUGlobalPrograms>

Spring 2016 Study Abroad

Ghana

March 20—April 4 Tentative

Albany State
University
POTENTIAL. REALIZED.

Ghana is one of the most attractive countries in West Africa with exquisite cultures and history, which attract thousands of tourist and students on study abroad yearly. It has a population of about 25 million, occupies a land area of 238,533 sq km(92,098 sq miles). English is the official language of the country, and some major Ghanaian languages are Aka, Ewe, Ga, Dagbani, Nzema, and Hausa. Surely you will enjoy the rich excursions that await you as you enroll to participate in ASU- Study Abroad in Ghana!

Program Structure and Dates

This course is offered as a full term course for Spring Semester 2016. Students will enroll in ECEC 3355 Developmental Reading and will travel for 2 weeks around the time of ASU's Spring Break, tentatively March 20—April 4.

Program Costs

The SPRING program is $2,647 for two weeks. Program cost includes:

- Round trip flight tickets from Atlanta to Ghana
- Transportation
- Lodging, meals, and insurance
- And several cultural excursions to some of Ghana's most famous attractions!

Cost does not include ASU tuition for credit hours, passport, additional expenses, or spending money.

Scheduled Payments

Application fee and deposit- $500 (non-refundable) due by Sept. 11, 2015

- First installment: $1,074 due 11/30/15
- Final payment: $1,073 due 2/26/16
- ASU Tuition: due at the start of the 2016 Spring Semester. ASU normal semester fee schedule applies.

Explore Ghana

All students will participate in planned excursions and required field trips on as planned by the program coordinator in collaboration with The University of Cape Coast, Ghana.

ASU students and Dr. Nneka Osakwe on the canopy walk at Kakum National Park

ASU Study Abroad Group at the Kwame Nkrumah Mausoleum

Highlights of Cultural Visits

Cultural activities include visits to educational facilities, Cape Coast Slave Castle, W.E.B. DuBois Memorial & Library, Kakum National Park, Kaneshie Market, and the President's Castle. There will also be plenty of opportunities to engage in beach activities, horseback riding, and more.!

Courses and Professors:

ECEC 3355: Developmental Reading

Teaching techniques and materials for developmental reading. Emphasis on emergent literacy, whole language, as well as traditional approaches to reading instruction. Observation and participation required.

This course is open to all College of Education candidates - Early Childhood Education, Middle Grades Education and Special Education.

Dr. Anthony Owusu-Ansah

Office: Billy Black 224

Email: Anthony.owusu-ansah@asurams.edu

Phone: 229-426-1265

ASU students teach English at Cape Coast Primary Schools

