

Quiteya D. Walker Faculty Interest and Capability

Name: Quiteya Walker, Ph.D.
Email: quiteya.walker@asurams.edu
Discipline: Counseling
Subdiscipline(s): Rehabilitation Counseling
Areas of Research Interests: Disability Support Services; Self-Advocacy; Transition Services for Student with Disabilities; Rural Counseling; Social Justice and Ethical Issues in Counseling

Skills: Quantitative Research; Conducting Literature Reviews
My research agenda highlights three specific areas: (a) disability support services at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU's), (b) transition services for P-16 students with disabilities, (c) ethics and rural counseling, and (d) Self-advocacy skills of college students with disabilities. The top priority of my research agenda is to continue to fill the gaps of existing literature and introduce new theories and practices to rehabilitation counseling and education. Over the past 5 years I have published and presented at regional and national conferences on the topics above.

Research Summary
(current, performed in the past 5 year; 300 words or less)

- In 2012, I co-wrote a journal article titled Collaborating with the disability rights community: Co-writing a code of ethics as a vehicle for ethics education.

My presentations include:

- Walker, Q. D., Jones, S. G., & Kennedy, T. (November 2013). Rural school counseling: Your role as an ethically responsible advocate. Presented at the Annual Georgia School Counselor Association Conference; Jekyll, Island, Georgia.
- Jones, S. G., Walker, Q. D., Clenney, J., Simmons, T., Soles, W. (November 2013). Deconstructing Advocacy and Social Justice: A Nexus of School Counseling Professionals. Presented at the Annual Georgia School Counselor Association Conference; Jekyll, Island, Georgia.
- Hollis, B. & Walker, Q. D. (July 2012). Disability support services at HBCU's: Are we meeting the needs of students. Presented at the Association of Higher Education and Disability, New Orleans, Louisiana
- Goldsmith, S. K., Griffin, D., Rollins, C., & Walker, Q. (February 2012). Effective transition services: A social justice issue for students of color with disabilities. Presented at the Annual Conference on Cross Cultural Issues in Counseling and Education; Savannah, Georgia.

Keywords (5 maximum)

Walker, Q., & Moore, N. (2011). Predictors of Success in College and Beyond: Utilizing a Triadic Approach to Counseling College Students with Disabilities. Presented at the Annual American Counseling Association Conference; New Orleans, Louisiana.
Disability, Self-Advocacy, Transition Services