Commencement Marshal's Direction & Comments

1. Strictly follow the Marshal's instructions; do not deviate from the Marshal's instructions for any reason.
2. Arrive at the Civic Center at 8:00 a.m.; proceed to the lineup area for your College and lineup by College and row numbers as instructed by the Marshal. Immediately report any problems to the Marshals.
3. Commencement Marshals will lead the degree candidates' procession into the arena and into their designated rows. All Students will remain standing until they are instructed to be seated by the President.
4. Each student row seats 18 students (with a designated row leader). The designated row leader will be the first person to enter a row (without exception). Each row is marked with the row number—be sure you know your row number, and do not enter another row of seats.
5. All degree candidates will receive the ASU Alumni Medallion at the Civic Center.
6. All degree candidates will receive their announcement name card at the Civic Center. When the announcer asks the candidates to stand and come forward, each candidate approaches stage right and hands his or her announcement name card to the dean (announcer) at the podium upon arrival on stage to receive the degree. Each candidate walks across the stage, receives the degree, exits the stage left, and pauses at the bottom of the stage steps to take an individual graduation photograph.

7. At the close of the program, commencement marshals will direct the students out of the arena in a recession in the same row order in which they processed into the arena.
8. Once the recessional reaches the arena lobby, students are dismissed and should exit the arena immediately.
