New Procedures:

- 1. Once Registration begins in the Spring, it will remain open for all students except during the times specified.
- 2. Once New Student Orientation ends, Registration will reopen for the campus community at large.
- 3. Drop/Add has been extended for three days to allow the students adequate time to drop and add courses to their course schedule.
- 4. After May 25, the only option available to students will be to drop courses from their schedule, not add.
- 5. After May 25, all 'drops' will be treated as withdrawals from the course.
- 6. Banner will be set up to allow students to withdraw from their courses. Students will be advised to discuss any changes in their schedule with their advisors, but the option will be there.
- 7. Any student reported as not attending classes will be dropped from the course
