

COMMITTEES OF THE WHOLE COMBINED: AUDIT AND REAL ESTATE AND FACILITIES

- B. Presidents whose resignations are accepted by the Chancellor may, upon request and at the option of the Board, be awarded a tenure or non-tenure track appointment at the rank of full professor in an institution of the University System selected by the Chancellor. Such employment shall not exceed two calendar years from the effective date of the president's resignation. Thereafter, continued employment shall be at the option of the institution.
- C. The salary for the first year of presidents who resign and receive a professorial appointment shall be determined by the Chancellor but it shall not exceed 90% of the state-supported portion of his/her previous salary as president.
- D. The professorial appointment of such resigned presidents for the second year shall be limited to an academic year appointment (nine months) at a salary not to exceed 60% of the state-supported portion of his/her previous salary as president.
- E. For purposes C and D above, the salary to be paid shall be based on the approved salary exclusive of any supplement or deferred compensation. (BR Minutes, August 2004)
- F. Subject to the approval of the Chancellor, presidents whose resignations are accepted may, upon request, be granted an educational leave with pay not to exceed twelve months immediately following the date of resignation. Leave time shall be counted against the two-year (or less) appointment referred to above (BR Minutes, 1991-92, pp. 33-34).

204 PRESIDENTIAL AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The president of each institution in the University System shall be the executive head of the institution and of all its departments and shall exercise such supervision and direction as will promote the efficient operation of the institution. The president shall be responsible to the Chancellor for the operation and management of the institution and for the execution of all directives of the Board and the Chancellor. The president's discretionary powers shall be broad enough to enable him/her to discharge these responsibilities. (BR Minutes, 1972-74, pp. 69-71; 1977-78, pp. 167-168).

The president shall be the ex-officio chair of the faculty and may preside at meetings of the faculty. The president or, and/or the president's designee, shall be a member of all faculties and other academic bodies within the institution. He/she shall decide all questions of jurisdiction, not otherwise defined by the Chancellor of the several councils, faculties, and officers. The president shall have the right to call meetings of any council, faculty, or committee at his/her institution at any time. The president shall have the power to veto any act of any council, faculty, or committee of his/her institution but, in doing so, shall transmit to the proper officer a written statement of the reason for such veto. A copy of each veto statement shall be transmitted to the Chancellor. At those institutions that have a council, senate, assembly, or any such body, the president or the president's designee may chair such body and preside at its meetings. The president shall be the official medium of communication between the faculty and the Chancellor and between the council, senate, assembly, or any such body and the Chancellor. (BR Minutes, 1993-94, p. 239).

The president shall be responsible for the initial appointment of faculty members and administrative employees of each institution, the salary of each, and all promotions and be authorized to make all reappointments of faculty members and administrative employees, except as otherwise specified in this manual. The president has the right and authority to grant leaves of absence for up to one year to members of the faculty for study at other institutions or for such reasons as the president may deem proper. He/she shall make an annual report to the Board, through the Chancellor or his/her designee, of the condition of the institution under his/her leadership. (Move this to Policy Section 800)

The president of each institution, or his/her designee, is authorized to accept on behalf of the Board the resignation of any employee of his/her institution (BR Minutes, 1977-78, p. 123; 1982-83, p. 225). (Move this to Policy Section 800)

The president of each institution, or the president's designee, shall have the authority to execute, accept, or deliver, on behalf of the Board, the following types of research agreements, settlement agreements, service agreements, and reciprocal emergency law enforcement agreements affecting his or her institution: (Move this to Policy Section 600 and other Sections as appropriate)

A. Research or service agreements whereby the institution concerned, for monetary compensation or other good and valuable consideration, agrees to perform certain institution-oriented research or other personal services within a time period of one year or less; (Move this to Policy Section 600)

B. Agreements between institutions of the University System of Georgia and hospitals or other organized medical facilities, both public and private, located within the State of Georgia, whereby the hospital or medical facility concerned agrees to provide clinical services to nursing and other students enrolled in nursing and allied health programs at the institution concerned. Said agreements shall be effective for one year with the option of annual renewal as specified therein and shall be subject to cancellation by either party. (Move this to Policy Section 700)

C. Reciprocal emergency law enforcement agreements between institutions of the University System of Georgia and county and municipal authorities, as authorized by the Georgia Mutual Aid Act, as amended (BR Minutes, 1993-94, pp. 63-64); (Move this to Policy Section 700)

Settlements of grievances and complaints (including those filed by state and federal agencies) that do not include a monetary commitment of more than $100,000. ~~Agreements shall be subject to review and approval by the Georgia Department of Law.~~ Notice of settlements shall be filed with the University System Office of Legal Affairs. ~~The Senior Vice Chancellor for Support Services~~ shall execute all settlement agreements on behalf of the Board (BR Minutes, May 2006). (Move this to Policy Section 700)

- D. Any agreements necessary for the day-to-day operation of the institution, as provided in section 700 of this manual; and
- E. ~~Gifts, bequests, agreements, or declarations of trust in those instances where the initial gift (or trust estate) is valued at $100,000 or less, provided, however, that presidents of University System institutions are not authorized to accept gifts of real property on behalf of the Board. All gifts having an initial value greater than $100,000 shall require acceptance by the Board of Regents. The presidents are further authorized to execute on behalf of the Board those documents necessary to provide proper fiscal management of all gifts accepted in accordance with this policy and, at their discretion, to delegate the authority to execute said documents to the chief fiscal officer of the institution. Each institution shall be required to report on an annual basis to the Chancellor all gifts received having an initial value of $10,000 or more (BR Minutes, January, 1997, p. 24).~~

~~Each president shall be authorized by the Board of Regents to take or cause to be taken any and all such other and further action as in the judgment of such president may be necessary, proper, or convenient in order to carry out the intent of this policy (BR Minutes, 1972-74, pp. 69-71; 1977-78, pp. 167-168).~~

205 INSTITUTIONAL EFFECTIVENESS: PLANNING AND ASSESSMENT

Each institution shall have a strategic planning process that maintains a current strategic plan in which institutional priorities are defined and through which the institution's mission is carried out in accordance with the strategic directions and guiding principles established by the Board of Regents. The faculty and staff of each institution shall be involved in developing the planning process and shall be included in the structure by which the plan is implemented.

In addition, each institution shall have a formal process by which systematic assessment of institutional effectiveness is conducted and the results of assessments are used to achieve institutional improvement. Assessment processes may differ from institution to institution, but each institution shall assess basic academic skills at entry, general education, degree programs, and academic and administrative support programs and/or functions. The faculty and staff of each institution shall be involved in developing assessment processes and included in the structure by which those processes are implemented and used for improvement.

Each institution shall link its substantive budget allocations and other major academic and administrative decisions to its planning and assessment processes to improve institutional
