(Last Modified on June 29, 2009)

4.2.3.1 General

In addition to the general admissions policies described above, each USG institution may increase the requirements, entry levels, and/or testing procedures for general admission to the institution or to special programs at the undergraduate or graduate levels provided they do not conflict with USG policies. Institutions should make available appropriate admissions information to students.

4.2.3.2 Referral of Students to Other Institutions

Institutions should actively assist Georgia applicants who have been denied admission to find another institution that more appropriately matches their academic credentials.

4.2.3.3 Right to Refuse Admission

An applicant may be declared eligible for admission, registration, enrollment, or re-enrollment at a USG institution only after satisfying all requirements established by the USG and the institution concerned. The institution shall have the right to examine and appraise the character, personality, and qualifications of the applicant. In order that this examination and appraisal may be made, the applicant shall furnish to the institution such biographical and other information, including references, as may be required. ↑ Top
