

The Office of Academic Affairs

The Provost

Degrees & Programs

Academic Catalogs

The Office of Academic Affairs at Albany State University upholds the standards and policies established by the faculty and administration while overseeing all aspects of the University curriculum and encouraging students to become involved global citizens. Also, Academic Affairs provides support to assist administrative staff, faculty, and students to realize their academic goals in pursuit of high academic achievement. While overseeing all of Albany State University's services related to the teaching, learning, and research activities on campus. Under the direction of the Provost/Vice President of Academic Affairs, the Office encompasses the following areas:

Academic Colleges & Units

College of Business

College of Education

College of Sciences & Technology

College of Arts & Humanities

Darton College of Health Professions

Distance Learning

Academic Departments

Graduate Studies

Honors Program

Center for Teaching,
Learning, and Scholarship

Global Programs

Office of Research and Sponsored Programs

Military Science
(Army ROTC)

Testing Center

