Move on When Ready (MOWR) Students

The Move On When Ready (MOWR) program allows high school students to enroll in college level courses. The best part is students get credit for college classes AND their equivalent high school course at no cost or very little cost to the student. There is no charge for tuition, mandatory fees, and required books, providing a huge cost savings for parents and students. Students can enroll part time, full time, online, or on campus classes. Some even graduate with an Associate's Degree at the same time they graduate from high school. Albany State University welcomes any 10-12th grader attending a public, private, or home study program in Georgia to participate in the Move On When Ready Program. MOWR will pay full tuition and fees for students enrolling in approved courses. Course related fees are also the responsibility of the student.

Readmit Students

- Students who have previously attended Albany State University and have not been in attendance for a semester or more are required to file an application for readmission in the Office of Academic Services and Registrar, by the deadline dates listed on the academic calendar for admission.
