On behalf of the men and women of the Albany State University Police Department, welcome to one of the finest departments in the USG.

Our department is committed to providing a safe environment for the campus community. Community Oriented policing practices best govern how we build collaborative relationships with the campus community. Our mission is based on professionalism, ethics and leadership. We pride ourselves in providing outstanding services for the faculty, staff and students here at Albany State University.

Safety is a responsibility that must be shared by everyone. The police need the help of its community to better make informed and practical decisions. Our police, security and dispatch staff are committed to safe guarding our number one customer, the ASU student.

Visit our website to understand and appreciate the outstanding customer service and community policing practices we implement on a daily basis.
